About Me

Sid is the perfect combination of salesperson and accountant. You might not think those two go together, but here's why they do. Sid is always looking for how to meet client's needs/wants (salesperson) but continuously has his eye on the bottom line (accountant) to keep clients on budget.

In his free time, Sid who is an Ellsworth native and Husson Grad, likes to play soccer or go snowboarding at sugarloaf. His humor is memorable, but one can't forget his red hair!
